News Of Churches Of The Glades Area

KATHLEEN LIVINGSTON, Editor

Episcopalians To Observe Holy Week

The blessing and distribution of palms in memory of Christ's entry into Jerusalem on the first Palm Sunday will take place at the Church of the Holy Nativity, Pahokee, at 9 a.m. and at St. Martin's, Clewiston at 11 a.m. Father John Clarence Petrie will preach at each service, on "God's Answer from the Cross," the sixth in his series of Lenten sermons on "The Problem of Evil."

At 6 p.m. the Belle Glade Episcopalians will meet at the home of Mrs. Harrison Raoul, S.E. 1st St., to hear Father Petrie explain the ceremonies of Holy Week. The public is invited.

On Thursday, the day when the Church commemorates the Institution of the Holy Eucharist, Holy Communion will be celebrated at St. Martin's, Clewiston at 9 a.m.

On Good Friday the celebration of the Cross will be at 12 o'clock noon. The Pahokee service will be at 3 p.m.

WCS Circles Hold Meetings Tuesday

The WCS circles of the Community Methodist Church met Tuesday evening at 8 p.m.

"Showing Love and Thankfulness at all Times" was the devotional given by Mrs. V. A. Boots at the opening of the meeting of the Joy Circle at the home of Mrs. F. C. Schoenfeld.

Mrs. R. V. Allison gave two chapters from the study book, "African Heritage." A special offering was taken up from Latin American Center in Miami, by the group.

Others attending were: Mrs. J. P. Schoenfeld, Mrs. R. Creech, Jr., Mrs. Guy Wood, Mrs. W. L. Royals, Mrs. Ruth Gangstad, Mrs. E. L. Holliday, and Mrs. Wm. Graber and Mrs. Alfred Vadare were co-hostesses.

The Star Circle met at the home of Mrs. Willard Scheffler, rooming at the Experiment Station.

Miss Sara Diggs led the study lesson, "African Heritage." Members turned in their gift boxes for the church building fund, and a collection was taken up for supply work.

It was announced that there will be a Silver Tea, at the home of Mrs. W. L. Royals, April 10, at 3 p.m.

A get-well card was sent to Mrs. Clarence Kidder, who has been in the hospital.

Others members attending were: Mrs. Frank Morris, Mrs. William Carter, Mrs. M. Sedole, Mrs. A. D. Arnold, Mrs. Ben Rider and Mrs. Emil Wolf.

Churches of Christ, Scientist

Recognition of the actuality and reality of the spiritual things of God insures joy and satisfaction. This is the keynote of services in all churches of Christ, Scientist, next Sunday when the subject is "REALITY."

The Golden Text is from Isaiah (64:4): "Since the beginning of the world men have not heard, nor perceived by the ear, neither hath the eye seen, O God, beside thee, what he hath prepared for him that waiteth for him."

Jesus' promise, "Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled" (Matthew 5:6) is one of the Bible citations.

Correlative selections from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include: "Material sense does not unfold the facts of existence; but spiritual sense lifts human consciousness into eternal Truth" (p. 95).

Presbyterian Women Have Installation

The Women of the Presbyterian Church enjoyed a pot luck supper recently with their husbands as guests.

After the supper the following officers for the year were installed by Rev. Robert Ford: Mrs. Richard Murray, president; Mrs. W. K. Whitlock, vice president; Mrs. Ed. Browning, chairman of World Missions; Mrs. Robert Lanier, chairman of spiritual growth; Mrs. Tommy Parker, chairman of general assembly; Mrs. Clyde Clayton, chairman of church nursery.

The annual reports were given in the form of a skit, with Mrs. Parker and Mrs. Lanier taking the leading parts.

250 MEMBERS ATTEND QUARTERLY CONFERENCE

The Quarterly Conference of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints was held at the Legion Hall in South Bay Sunday and was attended by approximately 250 members from all south Florida from Vero Beach and Wauchula south to Key West.

Peter J. Rick, president of the southern states with headquarters in Atlanta, GA, presided. Robert D. Sorenson of Miami conducted the morning session and Lacy D. Croft of Fort Lauderdale conducted the afternoon session. Several special musical numbers were presented throughout the day. A basket dinner was served at noon.

The Glades church filled their quota for the Improvement Era drive, having secured 23 subscriptions, the quota being 20.

W. W. Watson To Hold Revival

Preaching services at the First Baptist Church of Clewiston will commence Friday night, 7:30 p.m., continuous through Sunday, beginning Monday evening a two week revival will be held with Elder W. W. Watson from Auburndale, Fla. as preacher.

GRACE

Virtue, wisdom, goodness, and real worth, like the loadstone, never lose their power.

— Richard E. Burton.

There is no such way to attain to greater measure of grace as for a man to live up to the little grace he has.

— James G. Brooks.

As heat is opposed to cold, and light to darkness, so grace is opposed to sin.

— Thomas Brooks.

When a hungry heart petitions the divine Father-Mother God for bread, it is not given a stone—but more grace, obedience, and love.—Mary Baker Eddy.

Grace grows after government.—Thomas Bacon.

Grace is more beautiful than beauty.

— R. W. Emerson.

But he willing to justify himself, he will smile James. And who is my neighbor?—(St. Luke X, 29).

The good Samaritan has passed him by and he would be comforted by just a smile or a pleasant word from one who would be his neighbor; and he commanded, Go.

How many times each day do we pass by on the other side of those who are in need of help? Just a smile or a pleasant word from one who would be his neighbor; and he commanded, Go.

How many times each day do we pass by on the other side of those who are in need of help? Just a smile or a pleasant word from one who would be his neighbor; and he commanded, Go.

Tom Watson Plans Ambitiously For God's Work Abroad

What with publishing a bulletin, making radio talks, and planning a 100,000 watt station designed to reach "North and South Korea, Japan and China, Manchuria and parts of the USSR" Tom Watson is getting The Story over to a lot of folks.

In a letter to Thurmond Knight, received recently Tom says "I'm scheduled to go on a freighter on Feb. 22nd, arriving in Pusan on the 24th. I'll leave Kathryn and the children here for the time being, since the war still prevents them from giving permission to missionary families to enter."

"The reasons for going to Korea are twofold: (1) the fact that our mission group, TEAM, has decided to undertake missionary work over there and has asked me to go over and get it under way. Secondly, I've still much more follow up work to do on the application for the license to operate a gospel radio station (100,000 watts) in the Pusan area. I've been able to arrange tentatively another conference with President Rhee, and trust that after this talk with him I'll have some definite news on the license. I imagine such a radio station will cost in the neighborhood of $300 thousand. Broadcasts will be in five or more languages."

"Learning the language has been unique of course, and now I have started on Korean. That doesn't mean I've mastered Japanese by any means, but both Kathryn and I have made some progress."

"I suppose our sort of mission (a 'faith' mission) is different from denominational missions. Our missionaries (160 in Japan, the largest group) generally come from Baptist, Presbyterian, Methodist, Holiness, etc. We simply work as God provides. We started our radio work here on just that, with no funds in sight, and yet we've been able to continue for three months now, spending about $400 a week which God has sent for the work, mostly through sacrificial gifts from the missionaries themselves."

"However, we do not feel justified in making specific requests of friends, however. We believe that God will supply these needs as long as we are faithful and do not misuse or divert the money to our own selfish ends. We have invested our lives and all that we have in the souls of these people—in Eternity. We believe that as God leads others back home will be stirred to help in these financial needs."

Tom has the best wishes of his many friends and acquaintances in the Glades, and know that he will be in there pitching to promote his ideas of The Way Of Life.

TWO WCS CIRCLES MEET WEDNESDAY

Two circles of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Community Methodist Church met Wednesday afternoon.

"Toward understanding the Bible" was discussed by each group in their study course. Collections were taken for the Latin Americans in Miami.

The Ruth Naomi Circle met at the home of Mrs. E. M. Van Landingham with Mrs. C. A. Thompson leading the study course.

It was agreed upon that the circle would send one day at the hospital. Attending the meeting were: Mrs. J. I. Freedlund, Mrs. N. T. Taylor, Mrs. D. W. Harris, Mrs. Hugh Bratley, Mrs. M. M. Sabiston, Mrs. Frank Doolley and Mrs. James Ball as co-hostesses with Mrs. Van Landingham.

The Mary Martha Circle met at the home of Mrs. Ralph Freeman, with the study course led by Mrs. Olga Gledhill.

Mrs. Rebecca Allen gave the devotional from 15th Chapter, Mark. Announcement of the Silver Tea to be at the home of Mrs. W. L. Royals was made. Other members attending were: Mrs. C. A. Bailey, Mrs. Charles Maynard, Mrs. Walter Roth, Mrs. George Royal, Mrs. Dora McWhorter, Mrs. D. C. DeHaven, Mrs. E. L. Holladay, and Mrs. Ralph Kidder.

The bust of a Seminole Chief is the emblem of the Florida State University in Tallahassee.

In the Civil War battle of natural bridge south of Tallahassee, cadets of West Seminary, ancestor of the Florida State University in Tallahassee, took part in the battle which halted the advance of Federal troops.

Fibers from ramie, a nettle-like plant from the Orient, are used to weave a cloth that is much stronger than linen or silk.

THIS WEEK'S SERMONETTE

BY BREAD ALONE?

BY REV. H. R. HARLEE

Lake Harbor Baptist Church

Text: "Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God."—(Jesus, in Matt. 4:4)

It has been nearly a year and a half since we moved into this rich muckland. During that time, I have observed the people and their way of living. I am confident that a great many Glades residents do not agree with the above text. As any rule they never seem to feel the need of the Bible, the Church, or prayer, and "actions speak louder than words."

Pastors in this area will agree with me that hundreds of our people rarely, if ever, darken our church doors. Most of these, if asked why, reply, "I'm too busy," or some other such trivial excuse. Sunday, to them, is little different from any other week day, unless it is a chance to go on a hunting, fishing, a trip to Grandma's, or some other pleasure outing. Funny, we always "find time" for things we really WANT to do.

Suppose you passed by your local church, and saw a man up on the roof, chopping holes.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON—March 28, 1953

TITLE: "JESUS IS CRUCIFIED"

SCRIPTURE: MATTHEW 27:32-44, 54

I. AIM OF THE LESSON:

- a. To understand more fully the powerful appeal and transforming power of the cross.
- b. To realize anew that Christ died for us as individuals.
- c. To present the claim of Christ on our lives in return for what He has done for us.

II. CONCLUSIONS:

- a. As a common criminal, transgressor, sinner, Christ, who was without sin, died the death you and I deserve to die.
- b. This death was for you and for me.
- c. The cross is central in the plan of God; all the old Testament pointed toward it, and the new moves out with power from it.

Mrs. Marvin Miller, Billy Sue and Charles of Okeechobee took advantage of the close of schools to permit the teachers to attend the P.E.A. in Tampa and visited Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Higginbotham and other relatives here for a few days.

Mrs. and Mrs. Moss Jones of Miami were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Allen Monday to Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Vance Denton and children of Pahokee took Saturday night supper with Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Templeton.

CAR ACCIDENT DIDN'T PREVENT SUNDAY WEDDING

Florida Highway Trooper Joe P. Boettling had a busy day Sunday with four highway accidents on SR No. 25 and SR No. 80. He barely had time to clean up one accident before being called out on the next. Three persons were hospitalized, a wedding was threatened and a woman's scream caused heavy damage to two cars.

A young couple enroute to South Bay from the lower east coast for the purpose of being married at the Quarterly Conference of the Church of Latter Day Saints at the Legion Hall, missed the turn at South Bay and proceeded to Lake Harbor before they discovered their mistake. Enroute back the driver, George Harvey Taylor of Fort Lauderdale, age 20, lost control of his car on the Zwick curve, at 12:15, skidded on the wet pavement into a tree, doing heavy damage to the car. The young people consisting of his fiancee Joyce Winifred Brown and her sister of Hollywood, were thrown out of the car by the impact but fortunately were not severely injured. Miss Brown was taken to the Belle Glade Memorial Hospital by Mrs. Berry's ambulance where she received first aid.

Nothing daunted, the bride was outfitted with wedding garments by various members of the local church to replace those ruined by the accident and the wedding took place, President Peter J. Ricks performing the ceremony. The bridegroom expects to leave soon for active duty with the armed services and the couple planned the wedding before he left.

PATROLMEN BUSY WITH WEEKEND ACCIDENTS

Three persons were hospitalized in the Clewiston Hospital with injuries received in an accident at the entrance of Osceola Groves just east of Bare Beach. Rev. Father Robert William Schiefel of St. Augustine took a badly bruised leg his mother Mrs. Loyola Schiefel, age 51, badly bruised leg; his mother Susie Mae Specht, age 30, wife of Henry Specht of Ocala had a fractured finger and lacerations of the wrist.

According to Trooper Bertrand, Harold C. Ellenwood of Chicago traveling west in a DeSoto Coupe, attempted to turn into the entrance of the Osceola Groves. The front end of his car was struck by that of Father Schiefel. The rear end of the Schiefel Chevrolet in turn struck by a Chrysler coupe driven by Specht. A fourth car driven by George S. Knutson of Racine, Wisconsin, was trying to pass the Ellenwood car, struck it a glancing blow where it projected into his lane,

A curious assemblage of guests at Purdy's Last Resort adds to the meridian. Mrs. Augusta Van Sneerington and her "lipping" son Robert are interpreted by Judy Sullivan and J. K. Davis. Ray Sullivan takes the part of the Great Exc. Prof. Boomer K. Bamsmeier, on a top mission from Washington, a mission so secret even he has not been told what it is.

June Ratley has the role of Beulah Feltz, outspoken colored maid and Mary Waters plays Gabrielle (Gabby) Hopkins, neighbor who knows everything going on and tells it. Esther Walker enacts the part of Betty Green, breezy young wife of Mary Lou, and a V.O. Titus Pincheon.

The Kiddies Circus number is one of the most appealing parts of the show, with Bugs Bunny, the three tiger, zebra, lions, singers, dancers and even a balloon man.

An animal show is also included on the program and many of the local talent will be featured.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Smith of Bean City announce the birth of a daughter, Janine Marie, 7:30 pm, on March 12 at St. Mary's Hospital in Long Beach California where he is at present stationed with the U. S. Navy.

Mrs. Smith is the former Marie Weusnick of Fottstown, Penn. Raymond is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Smith. He expects to be released from active service in June and the young people will return to Bean City to make their home.

were excused for urgent reasons. In many instances reserve personnel were granted leave with pay in addition to regular vacation, or employers made up the difference between military and civilian pay while the reservists were on camp.

Field training periods will be for 15 days, including travel time. Since last year's encampment, the Army has liberalized its policy regarding individual travel to and from the camp sites, when travel by unit is directed. General Bolling is expected to permit 25 percent of each unit to travel as individuals. Previous policy permitted only about 10 percent of a unit to travel individually. The new policy will permit reservists personal freedom in complying with unit field training orders without hampering unit efficiency.

Local reservists affected by this program are Captain Banna Rodriguez, Nurse Corps, Major Wooten, Major Ed Lively, Captain Victor Green, Lieutenant Emmett Roberts and Warrant Officer Julius Harris.

TRUCKS PAY MILLIONS INTO FLORIDA COFFERS

Jacksonville - Approximately 200,000 trucks in Florida paid $6,919,387 in registration taxes for license tags during 1952, it was reported today by C. A. Gertner, general manager of Florida Trucking Association, Inc., and secretary of the Florida Highway Users Conference.

These figures, Gertner said, have just been disclosed as a result of a national survey by American Trucking Associations, Inc., with headquarters in Washington.

Dade County leads the state with 29,275 trucks paying $1,501,512 in registration fees and for license tags. Second is Hillsborough, with 17,966 trucks paying $726,532; and third, Duval, with 16,349 trucks paying $684,167.

Gertner said that 1952 figures involving all highway user taxes paid by trucks in 1952 are not yet available but that in 1950, Florida's 170,541 trucks paid highway user taxes totaling $24,802,000.

They were taken on a trip to the Experiment Station, where Frank Stevenson, took them on a tour and showed them various points of interest.

After the tour they skated on the tennis courts and then were served refreshments by the hostesses, Mrs. Walter Thoms and Mrs. Stoner.

Brownies attending were: Margo Averill, Mary Nez Collins, Sally Olson, Deanne Jensen, Karen Huebner, Jane Nelson, Mary Prevatt, Mary Lou Randolph, Priscilla Stoner, Margaret Thoms, Sharon Tobi, Sue Webster, Joan Wright, Susan Zumpf, Doris Muller, Ann Louise Bowers, Pat Wilkerson, Francis Ben, Cynthia Clayton, Vickie Hollingsworth, Sherry Dupont, Anna Marie LaChance, Avalail Poole, and Bonnie Jean Anderson.

At the meeting of the Intermediate Girl Scout Troop Monday, March 16, Mrs. R. J. Wright and each girl brought something that they have made in girl scouts; which will be displayed at the Belle Glade Fair.

The scouts decided they would go in a group to the Fair on Monday, attendance free, to see articles displayed by other troops.

After the work session, (sewing on the curtains for the scout hut) the meeting was adjourned.

MRS. HENRY EARWOOD SERVES ON STETSON ENDOWMENT COUNCIL

Mrs. Bunn McCall III and Mrs. H. O. Earwood of Belle Glade have been appointed members of the Women's Committee in the 1953 campaign sponsored by the United Stetson Alumni to secure subscriptions from Stetson University alumni to the university's proxy endowment project, it was announced today by Dr. J. Ollie Edmunds, president.

The Women's Committee is to be made up of 100 representative former students of Stetson, each of whom will endeavor to obtain ten gifts to the fund from other former students. Mrs. Helen Taylor Brown, of Orange Park, is chairman of the committee.

The United Stetson Alumni in charge of the fund-raising program is headed by former governor Doyle E. Carlton, of Tampa. G. Edward Gilliland, of DeLand is Executive Vice-President. A Men's Committee of 100 men who have attended the University will be headed by Dr. Charles E. Tribble, of DeLand. Former-governor David Sholtz, of Miami, will be chairman of a similar Lawyers' Committee.

Last year, the first year of Stetson's proxy endowment program, the university alumni contributed $27,886, which is the interest of $357,920 of endowment for which they stood proxy. This year the organization is seeking to double the amount of their gift to the university and also to double the number of alumni participating in the undertaking. Under the unique plan for providing alumni support for Stetson, each former student is asked to stand proxy for a definite sum of endowment, a $5 amount he chooses, and give the university's 5 percent interest on the amount he represents. Last year the amounts represented by individual alumni varied from $100 to $100,000, the cash gifts of interest thus varying from $5 to $5,000.

Looks Alone Don't Determine Grazing Value of Pastures

You can't tell how good your pastures are just by looking at them. Scientists and cattlemen have known for a long time that belly-deep grass does not in itself mean that the cattle have an abundance of food.

Dr. George K. Davis, head of the Animal Nutrition Laboratory of the Florida Agricultural Experiment Stations, has some pointers for determining the value of pastures.

He says total digestible nutrients, or TDN, are of primary importance in any consideration of pasture quality. The term TDN includes protein and carbohydrates—starches, sugars and fiber. These are the tissue-building and energy-making parts of the grass. Pasture quality also depends on the amount of calcium, phosphorus, magnesium, common salt, potassium, sulphur and trace elements.

The most critical of these plant contents in the grass is protein. Protein, fiber, phosphorus, and trace elements, with common salt, are the most important along the coast and in some of the peat areas.

Except in the case of young pastures, the TDN is not enough protein for young animals. Younger animals may not be able to eat enough pasture to supply their needs for growth. A 300-pound beef calf growing normally would have to eat 64 pounds of very young wiregrass to supply its protein requirements. It is amount would be 176 pounds if the grass were old. The same calf would need 54 pounds of very young Pangola or 134 pounds of old Pangola per day to meet its needs.

Pasture plants undergo changes during the year that affect pasture quality. As the plants mature they contain less protein and moisture and more crude fiber. The sharp drop in protein values as the plants age is a good indication of their nutritional quality. Dr. Davis points out, but this isn't the whole story. The dry matter content also reflects the available nutrients. Low total fiber means better nutritive value. The sharp drop in protein values as the plants age is a good indication of their nutritional quality.

Two little phosphorus in the plants may limit growth of the cattle grazing them. Old grasses contain less phosphorus than young grasses—the young grasses usually contain more than enough for good cattle growth. As grasses mature there is a drop in their phosphorus content.

Trace elements are very important in the pasture picture. The cattle must be supplied to the soil either through the soil or in a mineral box, or in both ways. Here again, good looking plant growth may not be a guarantee of nutritional quality.

Dr. Davis explains that the final test of the nutritive value of pastures is the way which livestock grazing the pastures perform. However, good management of the pastures will go a long way toward assuring good cattle performance.

WASHINGTON NEWS LETTER

From

WASHINGTON—The Senate expects to have before it this week a resolution, passed overwhelmingly by the House last week, to create a new government department—the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

I expect to oppose this measure. It seems to me the principal accomplishment of such a law would be to add to government bureaucracy, and it was this sort of thing that the people were fighting last fall when they voted General Eisenhower into the presidency. I cannot see where creating a new cabinet post, with a big operating overhead, and pyramiding a new group of government bureaucrats, will add anything to the services the people now get in the administration of the Social Security system, Office of Education, and Public Health Service. I would much prefer this money go into more adequate social security benefits.

CAPITOL HILL NOTES.—I am scheduled for ABC's "Washington U.S.A." radio program next Saturday (March 28). On March 30, I will be at Jacksonville for a joint civic meeting sponsored by Rotary and the Jaycees and that evening I will appear on the Jacksonville Jaycees Forum, of which Noah Jenette is moderator. . . from Jacksonville I will fly to Hollywood to assist in a Small Business Committee hearing into monopoly aspects of the movie industry. . . Under the command of Lieutenant Colonel Homer S. Ellis, who has been the commanding officer since the squadron was reactivated in February, 1952, the pilots and men, with only a month and a half experience with jets prior to the maneuvers, proved through their tireless efforts that nothing is impossible.

VETERANS INFORMATION AND SERVICE

By Melvin T. Dixon

State Service Officer RETIREMENT.—NATIONAL GUARD SERVICE PRIOR TO 1916.—The United States Court of Claims rendered a decision that National Guard service from 21 January 1903, the date of the Dick Act, through 3 June 1916, the date of the National Defense Act, is satisfactory Federal service for retirement purposes under the provisions of Title III, Public Law 810, 8th Congress.

The original claim was filed by three veterans with from 27 to 43 years service, active and Guard, however, all had retired less than 20 years after approval of the National Defense Act of June 3, 1916, which gave the National Guard federal status for the first time. The Adjutant General of the Army turned down the grounds that their total service in federal status failed to meet requirements of the Reserve Retirement Act's 25-year provision.

The matter of crediting such service is now under study. If you are receiving retirement under Title III, and if you had service in the National Guard during the above-mentioned period, it is suggested that you take action to have such service certified by requesting the Adjutant General of the State, or States, in which you served to furnish you with an official statement of that service. The statement should include date or dates of your enlistment or acceptance of commission and the date or dates of discharge or termination of your appointment, together with the dates of your active duty.

MIAMI MARINE JETS SET A FLYING RECORD Working as a team, pilots and men of Marine Jet Fighter Squadron-314, a unit of the Third Marine Aircraft Wing, Miami, Fla., combined their efforts in breaking a two-year flying record established by the Marine Jet Fighter Squadron-115 of the Second Marine Aircraft Wing at Cherry Point, N.C.

The record of 5304 flying hours, set by the Cherry Pointers in June, 1951, was topped recently by Squadron-314 while on maneuvers in the Caribbean area. A total of 2403.9 hours was compiled during a 30-day period of both day and night flying.

In order to maintain aircraft readings, it was necessary to keep three check crews of four men each on the line at all times, so that any arriving aircraft needing repairs could receive immediate attention. Of the 23 jets that were taken to Puerto Rico, 13 of them were kept in constant flying condition. . . Maintenance of these aircraft consisted of 30, 60, 90, and 120 hour checks. During this time, the engine, hydraulic system, tires, and other parts were given a thorough going over. This was handled with such skill that little or no time was lost, thus enabling the pilots to break the old record.

The pilots were enthused over setting the new record, but almost to a man they gave the credit where it was due—to the maintenance crews, who worked around the clock.

"See that Technical Sergeant sitting on the wing of that Panther," remarked one of the pilots. "Well, that kid has been up for the last twenty-four hours working like crazy, and he's typical of this crew."

All day long the line buzzed with activity keeping the ships in flying condition. All night the area was lit up by portable lights so that the work could continue without interruption, spent last weekend in Tampa. Finally on the 30th day, after Orlando.

the record had been officially broken, the officers and men of the "Fighting Bobcats" heaved a mighty sigh and looked back on a job well done.

Returning to Miami, the squadron received a commendation from Major General Harris, Commanding General, Aircraft, Fleet Marine Force, Atlantic, commending them for their outstanding performance. General Harris also congratulated them on their fine safety record, having flown 3403.9 jet hours without an accident.

Indelible animal fats and vegetable oils are now being used as plasticizers through a process developed by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Turn milk cows dry six to eight weeks before they are due to calve again.

"Mid-morning let-down is largely psychological and not attributed to a breakfast high in starches and sugar."

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Castellino continue without interruption, spent last weekend in Tampa. Finally on the 30th day, after Orlando.

PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGE ROBED CHOIR

COLLEGE CHOIR WILL SING SUNDAY MORNING

Presbyterian College's robed choir, which has received national recognition for its concert of sacred music and worship, will sing at the Everglades Presbyterian Church of Belle Glade on Sunday morning (March 29).

The choir presents as its theme this season "The Word of God," adopted in connection with the new version of the Bible recently published. Conductor Edouard Patte once more has developed an outstanding program of sacred classical music for his 32-voiced group. The program includes selections from Bach, Handel, Oreg. Beethoven, Russian composers of the old school and several rarely heard negro spirituals.

Under Dr. Patte's direction, the Presbyterian College choir has risen to unusual prominence as a congenial singing organization. It closed the previous two seasons with national radio broadcasts on "Great Glee Club of America," a program which presents only the highest quality choral groups. And over the past five years, the choir has traveled more than 30,000 miles in ten states.

After the 1952-53 season, Dr.

EDOUARD PATTE

Patte scheduled another full program of musical activity. It includes 34 worship concerts and tours into Georgia and Florida. When not on tour, the choir fills weekend engagements in Presbyterian churches throughout South Carolina.

Among the more significant pieces rendered by the Presbyterian College choir in developing its theme "The Word of God" are:

"The Heavens are Telling" by Beethoven; "Send Forth Thy Light" by Balakirev; "Sicut Locutus Est" by Bach; "Gloria" by Tippett; "Zion Hears" by Buxtehude; "God's Son Has Made Me Free" by Greig; "Let Thy Celestial Concerts All Unite" by Handel; and three spirituals entitled "Honor Him," "His Name So Sweet" and "Take My Mother Home."

CROSS COUNTRY CHATTER with Mac White

Maybe I'd better introduce myself a little more thoroughly because you're going to be hearing a lot more from me. And before I finish, I think we're going to be good friends. You can just call me "Mac" because that's what all my friends call me. I'm 35, married, got a couple of kids and I'm down in Jacksonville, Florida. For the past ten years I've been a driver for a lot of Florida's largest trucking firms.

Graduated from high school at Jacksonville, attended the University of Florida for two years where I studied engineering, put in a hitch with the Merchant Marine and then got married and had to settle down to this business of making a living. I chose the trucking industry because, while I was in college, I helped pay my way by getting a part-time and summer-time job with a trucking company. They started me out right at the bottom, pushing a two-wheel Georgia buggy. (That's a pushcart in our language.) Then I became a driver's helper on a pick-up-and-delivery run. Now I'm making long hauls—covering such areas as Atlanta to Jax, Jax to Tampa, Jax to Miami, and Jax to Key West. Right now I'm "deadheading" north, passing through Oak Hills, after delivering four new automobiles to a dealer at West Palm Beach. By the way, I mean my trailer is empty. We try to avoid these empty runs because, as you can imagine, they're unprofitable. It costs a lot of money to operate a tractor-trailer that makes only about five miles on a gallon of gas and wears down tires that cost more than $100 each—and I'm riding on ten of 'em.

We fellows are known as "professional" drivers. We've been through a long, hard period of training. Periodically we must take physical exams and psychophysical tests consisting of such items as distance judgment, depth perception, simultaneous, night vision, and so forth. Oh-oh—there's a little lady in trouble who's stuck in a ditch. Now if I can find a safe shoulder, I'll pull off the road and help her out. See you next week...

more engine power!

Advanced Loadmaster engine—standard equipment on 4000 and 6000 Series heavy-duty trucks—adds torque and gives more staying power.

more braking power!

In 1953, all Chevrolet trucks up to 4000 Series heavy-duty models have "Torque-Action" brakes. Series 4000 and above use extra-large "Torque-Action" brakes in front, "Twin-Action" type in rear.

more staying power!

Now, heavier, stronger, more durable frame—thinner, rigidly, add to ruggedness and give more staying power than ever to all 1953 Chevrolet trucks.

more economy!

The new economy of Chevrolet trucks, plus extra gasoline economy in heavy-duty models with improved Loadmaster engines—these hauling costs per ton-mile.
